A Surface Creek Christmas

Winter Tales
1904–1910

Book 1 in the Surface Creek Life Series

D.P. Benjamin

Book One in The Surface Creek Life Series

From 1904 to 1910, the Surface Creek Champion newspaper reported on communities nestled in the verdant Surface Creek Valley of Western Colorado—a world-famous apple growing region. During vintage winters, local residents relished stories of neighbors, weather, crop outlooks, animals, rural society, and holiday celebrations. This compilation takes the modern reader on a nostalgic journey into the realm of Christmases past.

PROOF OF AUTHORITY

AN EVIDENTIAL APPROACH TO A BIBLICALLY CHRISTIAN WORLDVIEW

David Wayne Meeker

Biblical Christianity is the only religion in the world that provides with its message proof of authority. God gives us overwhelming internal and external evidences in the coherency, accuracy and unity of His Word as it relates to our reality in validating His message. God does not expect His creation to follow Him blindly, but rather He gives us overwhelming proof of His authority.

Carolyn White

Like a Swarm of LOCUSTS

Book Three

*A celebration of the mishaps, misadventures,
and mayhem shared by childhood friends.*

Book Three in the Trucks Are for Girls Series

Takes the reader back to the beginning – the growing up years in the 1960's and 70's – and the friendships which helped shape her.

Rich in detail, nostalgic, and hilarious, the twelve essays in Like a Swarm of Locusts highlight a kinder and simpler time of life when kids were still free to be kids. Weaving in memories of her later years as a wilderness guide, mule packer, and camp cook in the mountains of Idaho, White paints vivid pictures of the early adventures that helped develop her strengths, from horseback riding in the hardwood forests of Ohio, to camping, caving, and backpacking in rural West Virginia, to living on her own right out of high school.
